A BILLIONAIRE'S RANSOM PART 2: A MILITARY ACTION AND ADVENTURE ROMANCE NOVEL SERIES (TERRORIST FICTION, MILITARY ACTION ROMANCE, MILITARY ROMANCE NOVELS) (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. An illegal diamond merchant goes missing in war-torn Bornu State, northeastern Nigeria, a large poverty-stricken region on the edge of the mighty Sahara Desert being besieged by the dreaded Boko Haram Islamic terrorists. He leaves behind a vast legitimate fortune and the heir apparent is an impulsive young US-born beauty. In the protection of her bodyguards, the heiress travels to the war-torn region in search of her beloved father but promptly gets kidnapped by the terrorists. A huge ransom is demanded and Goldfield Holdings International, the family's company, releases the money quickly to its CEO, an uncle to the heiress, who uses his top political connections to arrange for a team of soldiers to go into hostile territory and negotiate with the terrorists to bring the heiress home. The team needs an experienced leader with specialized qualities and the best opinion, according to the Army's secret files, is American trained ex-Special Forces Commando, Lieutenant Alexander Okoye, a former Military Intelligence agent who had been kicked out of the force for unspecified reasons. Nobody wanted his ass anymore, and so Alex was reduced to the boring civilian life of a third-level foreman at a rundown warehouse in the bustling city of Lagos when he was approached to take the job. The money was too good and he was broke, so he took it despite the great dangers he knew lay ahead. Things go so wrong with the mission and so fast because too many parties are involved and all have hidden agendas. Too many powerful people wanted the heiress dead or as a captive for different reasons - her uncles, the terrorists, and even the Nigerian Military Intelligence that wanted every terrorist dead at all costs....
